

The image shows the back of a white, rectangular electronic device with rounded corners. The device has several circular holes and slots, including two large oval-shaped cutouts at the bottom. A white rectangular label is positioned in the upper center. A white text box is overlaid on the lower center of the device.

FCC ID
Label Location